

NENAB®

NENAB free-wheel lift type NENAB 250 with a lifting capacity of 2.5 tons at 8 bar. Designed for use on four-pillared lift or pit.

The lift is intended to be used for lifting cars, checking and repair of the wheel suspension, steering control, wheel bearings, tires and more.

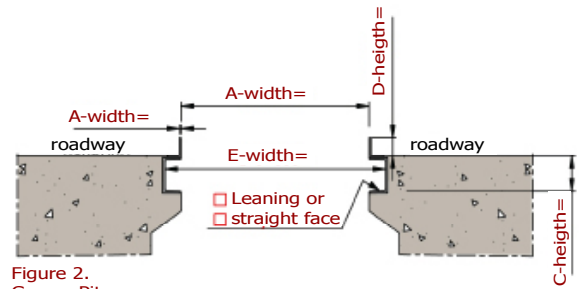

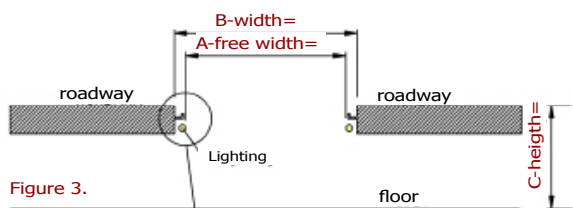

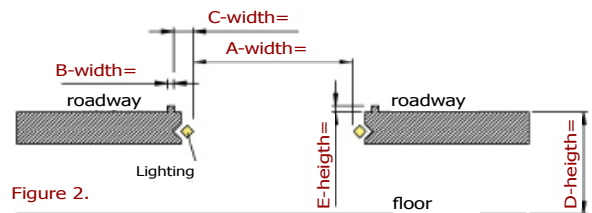

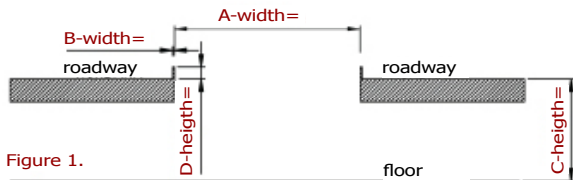

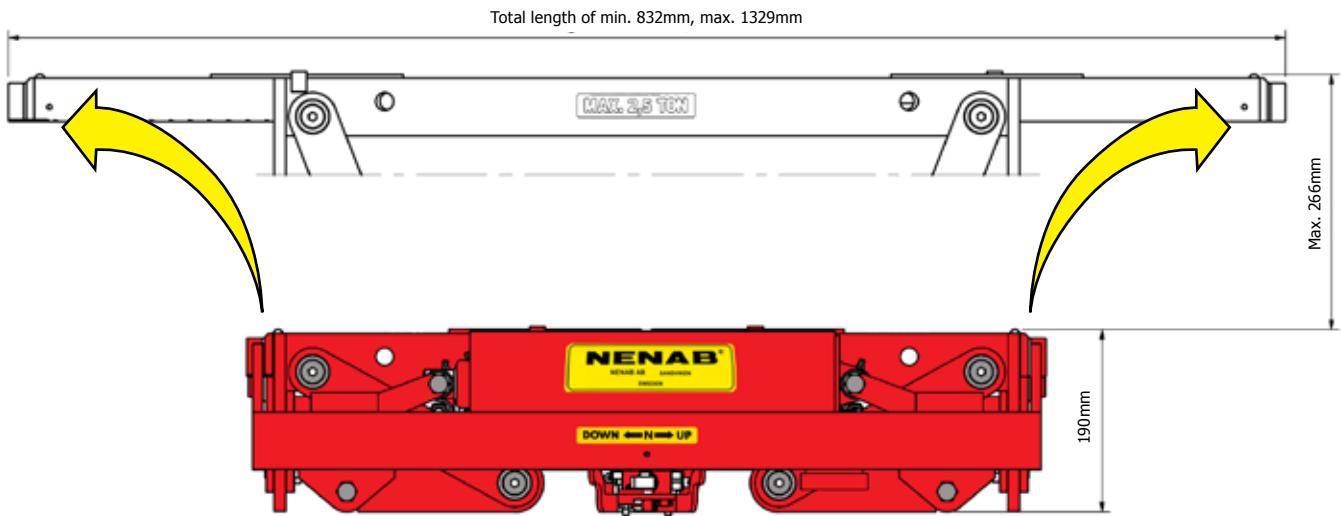

The lift is reliable, easy to work, Quiet, Service-friendly and meets very high standards for security, speed and stability.

Note that the lift, as the only one on marknaden, is equipped with controls on both sides.

New!
The new support heel of rubber complement range of accessories.
Item 12846

The lift has been developed in consultation with the Swedish Motor Vehicle Inspection

Here you have sketches that may help you to give us the measurements we need in order to provide you with a customized product ...
... A tool for your needs!

Your guarantee of high quality and efficient operation.